

Job Description

Job Title	Domestic Abuse Helpline Worker
Responsible to	Specialist Support Services Manager
Direct reports	None
Working pattern	22.5 hours per week across three days

As a BWA Domestic Abuse Helpline worker your job will be, as part of a team, to answer calls, respond to voice messages, respond to emails and webchats on the BWA Domestic Abuse Helpline.

Key tasks are to provide a high-quality service, which includes:

1. Helpline support in the form of active, non-judgemental listening, risk assessment, safety planning, and signposting advice
2. Support to agencies and other stakeholders
3. Promotion of the services offered by BWA
4. Working in line with BWA ethos and values.

Your role is to empower our clients, keeping the safety of survivors and their children central to our interventions. We are looking for an individual who is able to work in a fast-paced environment and is committed to responding professionally to a wide range of callers, victims, survivors and professional agencies.

What will you do?

1. You will respond to phone calls, emails, webchats and voice messages from survivors, professionals, families and friends about domestic abuse.
2. You will carry out risk assessments, signpost or refer and give appropriate safety planning advice to those seeking help.
3. You will also collect monitoring data, on all calls, email, chats, and other enquiries as required.
4. You will complete administration tasks each shift and after every contact.
5. You will help to build capacity of the helpline through the communication strategy, such as social media posting.
6. You will attend supervision, line management and other meetings as agreed with your manager.
7. You will adhere to all BWA policies and procedures.
8. You will work cooperatively as part of the BWA team to develop high quality services and contribute to organisational development.

This list is a guide to the tasks of the role and is not exhaustive. We need someone in this role to respond flexibly to the needs of our helpline service to survivors and professionals.
