

Job Description

---

Job Title	Senior Outreach Worker, Bracknell
Responsible to	Outreach Operations Manager
Direct reports	Outreach Workers (x2)
Working pattern	37.5 hours – flexible working can be considered

As a BWA senior outreach worker your job will be to provide high quality support, risk assessment, information and advocacy to clients who have experienced domestic abuse, as well as providing line management oversight to members of the outreach team. Your role is to empower our clients, keeping the safety of them and their children central to our interventions. We are looking for an individual who is able to work in a fast-paced environment, is committed to building strong relationships with a wide range of professional agencies and is able to provide a robust contribution to maintaining and delivering a high quality service.

What will you do?

1. Work as part of the Bracknell outreach team, BWA staff, volunteers and colleagues to provide outreach support, group facilitation and professional training.
2. Work in partnership with voluntary and statutory organisations, maintaining good working relationships with external agencies and keeping up to date with local resources and services available to clients.
3. Provide supervision and line management to outreach staff, undertaking regular case management to ensure all referrals are allocated and progressed appropriately and all clients receive a high quality and equitable service.
4. Lead on BWA's attendance at MARAC and MATAC meetings, reviewing MARAC referrals from your team and ensuring these are uploaded in a timely manner, monitoring the need to refer to MARAC during case management and case discussions with your team.
5. Ensure that any safeguarding issues for children or vulnerable adults are raised immediately with BWA management as per BWA policies.
6. Meet or speak on the telephone with those experiencing domestic abuse to provide support and information, providing a full initial assessment to clients to identify and address their needs.

7. Provide appropriate crisis support to outreach clients, completing in-depth assessments of risk and undertaking high quality safety and support planning, signposting and referring clients to external agencies and other specialist services as required.
8. Attend meetings as and when necessary to support clients with Child Protection processes, housing needs or the criminal and civil justice systems.
9. Co-facilitate group work sessions with colleagues on a rolling basis, ensuring confidentiality forms are signed, administrative procedures are maintained and feedback is collected at the end of each programme.
10. Maintain accurate records in line with BWA procedures regarding all aspects of service delivery for monitoring and other purposes, including detailed case management records and the collation of statistics for quarterly reporting.
11. Co-facilitate the delivery of training to professionals across the areas BWA cover.
12. Support the BWA Helpline if required, take calls and provide confidential advice, helping to arrange safe accommodation and transport for clients and their children.
13. Publicise the work of BWA, delivering training to professionals on the range of BWA's service and ensuring other organisations know how to refer to BWA.
14. Be an active member of the team, helping to cover the work of the team during absences, vacancies or when a colleague is under pressure, and liaising and coordinating with colleagues to provide an effective and cohesive service for clients. Share previous experience, skills and knowledge which may be relevant to the team in providing its service
15. Provide on call backup support to BWA's out of hours' service.
16. Keep up to date on local and national changes and best practice when supporting clients and issues that affect them.
17. Ensure that the needs of all outreach clients are respected, especially those who face barriers to accessing services because of ethnicity, sexuality, disability or other hard to reach groups.
18. Work within and support BWA's policies and procedures, including maintaining confidentiality and professional boundaries across all of your work.
19. Be the voice of the clients and children we represent by ensuring that their experiences are accurately reflected and that complaints are dealt with via the BWA complaints policy.
