

Our vision is to empower communities to break the cycle of domestic abuse

Annex 1: BWA example Helpline rota

BWA provide Helpline services Monday to Friday (including some evenings) and are currently seeking two team members who are able to work flexibly and, in addition to day time hours, cover one evening per week and alternate Saturday mornings.

An example rota may look like:

		Team member 1	Team member 2
Week 1	Monday	11am to 7pm	Non-working
	Tuesday	9am to 5pm	Non-working
	Wednesday	9am to 1:30pm	9am to 5pm
	Thursday	Non-working	11am to 7pm
	Friday	Non-working	9am to 5pm
	Saturday	9:30am to 12:30pm	Non-working
Week 2	Monday	11am to 7pm	Non-working
	Tuesday	9am to 5pm	Non-working
	Wednesday	9am to 5pm	9am to 1:30pm
	Thursday	Non-working	11am to 7pm
	Friday	Non-working	9am to 5pm
	Saturday	Non-working	9:30am to 12:30pm

BWA support flexible working. If you feel you meet the person specification for this role and would like to discuss potential working structures, please get in touch: info@bwaid.org.uk

Our mission is to provide refuge and community-based support services for all of those at risk of domestic abuse
